PRESIDENT WHEELER DEAD.

George Henry Wheeler, president of the Washington Park Club, is dead. For some months past his health has been such that it has been feared his days were numbered, a fear that has been sadly realized. He was the second president of the Washington Park Club, his sole predecessor in the office having been General Philip H. Sheridan. Mr. Wheeler was eminent in the highest business and social circles of the metropolis of the west, as well as being a commanding and dignified figure on the turf. As a racing center of the highest order Washington Park attained its greatest fame and prosperity during the period of his incumbency, the memorable meeting of the World's Fair year having been beyond controversy the greatest and in all respects the most successful race meeting ever held in America. President Wheeler was a courteous, cheerful gentleman and a good citizen. That he has been called upon to pay the great debt while yet in the prime of life will bring sadness to hundreds of turfmen who have been the recipients of his kindly consideration it was his nature to give.

APPEALS DECIDED.

The Committee on Appeals of the American Turf Congress has rendered the following decisions in cases appealed from various members of the Turf Congress. The most important case is that affecting jockey Rose and employer W. Clancy. The decision is as follows:

In the controversy between J. J. Smith and W. Clancy over the services of the boy Lee Rose, the committee rendered the following opinion:

"In the case of the jockey Lee Andrew Rose, we are of the opinion that J. J. Smith is legally entitled to his services, and it is ordered that W. Clancy be fined $100 and relinquish his claim upon the boy; and it is further ordered that the jockey Rose be notified to at once return to the service of J. J. Smith."

At the spring meeting of the Louisville Jockey Club W. Gallagher, part owner of the b. c. Patroon, 4 year-old, by Patron—Madie, entered said horse in a race to be run on May 4th, and after time to declare Gallagher requested the judges, C. F. Price and L. P. Tarlton, to excuse the horse. After an examination of the horse and being fully satisfied that he was not lame, as claimed by Gallagher, the judges ordered Gallagher to start the horse. Gallagher refused to do so and the judges ruled Gallagher and the horse off. The Committee on Appeals sustained the judges.

In the controversy between F. M. Arthur and the Queen City Jockey Club over the payment of entrance fees, the committee decided that the Queen City Jockey Club was entitled to the $65 held by the Chicago Racing Association.

The case of James Robinson, who was ruled off last winter by the Crescent City Jockey Club, was referred back to said club for action.

MAKE YOUR ENTRIES.

For the last time the attention of owners is called to the great list of rich stakes advertised in this issue of DAILY RACING FORM by the Brooklyn Jockey Club and the Westchester Racing Association. Those who have their yearlings in hand should not neglect this opportunity to enter them in stakes, the winning of almost any one of which would mean the sudden accumulation of a comfortable fortune. It is to be regretted that the eastern clubs are able to offer so much greater inducements to the owners of good horses than the western clubs are; but so long as such is the case it is the part of common sense to go after the big money. Entry blanks for both tracks can be had at this office and at the Hawthorne racetrack. Owners are reminded that next Tuesday is the last day for making entries. If they get shut out it will now be their own fault.

GOOD RACING AT HAWTHORNE.

There was a record breaking crowd at Hawthorne Saturday. It filled the stand, the walk in front of the stand, the betting shed and even crowded into the paddock. At the very least there must have been between 8,000 and 10,000 people on the grounds. It was a typical half-holiday gathering of people who hissed at what they thought was not right and yelled like Indians when the horse they favored won.

Starter Dick Dwyer got more than his share of roasting from the crowd. His troubles began in the first race. There were thirteen starters and the field was at the post for nearly half an hour. Amelia Fonso was mainly the cause of the long delay by refusing to break. Mr. Dwyer gave her numerous chances and perhaps used bad judgment by not leaving her early in the game.

What made it bad for the starter in the eyes of the public was the fact that Amelia Fonso and Astor ran in practically the same colors. Astor carried terra cotta, white sash and cap, and Amelia Fonso cherry, pink sash and cap, and not over one hundred people in the stand could tell them apart. Astor is a bad actor himself and at every break either he or Amelia Fonso would be standing still at the post. As Amelia Fonso was the first one to start the bad acting, the crowd put all the blame on her. Thus poor Dwyer was a victim of circumstances.

Amelia Fonso was lucky, and when the word was given she was well on her stride and, leading all the way, won by about three lengths. It was a false result after the long delay, as both Roger B. and Isen were prominent in all break-aways, while Amelia Fonso was used but little. The latter's entry will be refused at both Hawthorne and Harlem in the future.

The racing throughout was full of interest and especially close were the finishes in the fourth and fifth events.

The fourth was a steeplechase over the short course which, by the way, has been changed a trifle. Instead of the horses starting back of the water jump, as they used to, they were started opposite the seven-eighths post and took the fences in the center of the field and directly straightaway first.

After clearing the sixth obstruction My Valentine went to the front and led to within a couple of strides of the wire, where she was passed by Clifton B., who barely got up in time to win by a nose. My Valentine beat Princess Murphy but a narrow margin for the place. This was by far the best jumping race of the season to look at. Clifton B. has been improving with every start and 20 to 1 was a false price against him.

The fifth was at one mile, and Racivan, Fausturo and Harry Nutter fought for all they were worth the entire length of the stretch. Racivan got the verdict, but had Jenkins, who rode Fausturo, let Harry Nutter through in the stretch he would have won easily.

Thrive showed his quality by cantering in the easiest kind of a winner in the seven furlong race for two year-olds. He beat an inferior lot, though, and the race does not count for much.

Cherry Leaf won the mile and seventy yards condition race by a whisker from Carnero. The latter came with a sensational rush at the end and had not Crowhurst, who rode Cherry Leaf, been paying strict attention to his business he would have been nipped out. As it was, it was a very tight fit.

The last race was nothing more than an exercise gallop for Goose Liver. He is a loafer, but after a little shaking up at the head of the stretch he came away without special urging.

Crowhurst rode this winner and handled him with judgment. This lad is not afraid to lie away and wait patiently while placing a horse.
Jockey Rose was fined $25 and suspended for the meeting by the starter.

To dissolve partnership Sloan & Hurst will sell all their horses, including those good race-horses Prince Blazes, Charmante, Crystal Dome and others at Hawthorne racetrack Saturday, August 19.

Tony Licalzi has decided to sell his entire stable at Harlem racetrack, Saturday, August 26. His reason for doing so is that he believes bookmakers should not be horse-owners.
Among the lot will be Donna Rita, Al Fresco,
Lady Ellerslie, Galathes, Hop Scotch, Sirdar and seven others, including some very highly tried and valuable two-year olds.

LEADERS IN OUR LINE.....

Week ending Saturday, August 12, was a most successful one for our clients. Over 75 percent. of our selections were successful, and all at good odds, including some at odds of 15 to 1 and 30 to 1. One reason for this is that we are in a position to know, as we do not guess.
There will be some long shots that will come off next week, and we KNOW when and where.
A WORD TO THE WISE IS SUFFICIENT.
Terms $10.00 for six days' selections, 60 percent. WINNERS GUARANTEED. Send for Booklet FREE.
